

Study and Examination Regulations (SER) for the BSc in Tourism (Directive)

Issuing authority: University Council
Scope: University of Applied Sciences
Classification: Internal
Version: V01.01
Issuing date: 18.05.2020

Basis

The following Directive is based on the Framework Regulations for the Study and Examination Regulations, dated 3 September 2019.

I. General provisions

Art. 1
Content and scope

<sup>1</sup> These Study and Examination Regulations govern the BSc in Tourism, acting in addition to the Framework Regulations for the Study and Examination Regulations.

II. Admission and enrolment

Art. 2
Admission and enrolment

<sup>2</sup> To clarify article 3(2) of the Framework Regulations, individuals holding the following diplomas and with the following professional experience can be admitted to this bachelor's study programme:

- a) Holders of a vocational diploma ('Berufsmaturität') recognised by the Swiss Confederation, in conjunction with vocational training in areas connected to tourism, the tourism sector, the hotel industry and the service industry, e.g. individuals who have completed a three-year vocational apprenticeship to be a hotel specialist, or commercial training.
- b) Holders of a high school diploma ('Gymnasialmaturität') or specialised secondary school diploma ('Fachmaturität') recognised by the Swiss Confederation, provided that the individual in question has one year of relevant professional experience, as per letter a, by the time that they commence their studies.

<sup>3</sup> Holders of equivalent qualifications and diplomas from a foreign country can be admitted to the course provided that the individual in question can prove that they have one year of relevant professional experience by the time that they commence their studies.

- Art. 3
Admission
- Art. 4
Recognition of previous academic achievements
- Art. 5
Additional costs specific to the study programme
- III. III. Studies
- Art. 6
Study structure
- Art. 7
Curriculum
- <sup>4</sup> The Director of Studies will decide whether to recognise other professional experience on a case-by-case basis.
- <sup>1</sup> Individuals who can prove that their English language skills are at B2 level (Cambridge First Certificate or equivalent) upon commencing their studies can be accepted into the English class.
- <sup>1</sup> The Admissions Directive defines whether previous academic achievements can be recognised.
- <sup>2</sup> In other respects, the following applies with regard to recognising other previous academic achievements:
- a) Modules can be recognised if a module of similar scope and covering similar content was taken and passed as part of a previous study programme.
  - b) The Director of Studies will make decisions relating to such recognition.
- <sup>3</sup> The application for the recognition of ECTS points or equivalent achievements attained prior to the commencement of the study programme must be submitted no fewer than two weeks before the study programme is commenced.
- <sup>1</sup> Additional costs amounting to approx. CHF 550.00 per semester, on average, are incurred for external examinations, learning materials, excursions etc.
- <sup>2</sup> In principle, the University of Applied Sciences will not contribute towards these costs.
- <sup>1</sup> The study programme is offered as a full-time programme. A job may only be pursued alongside the study programme to a limited extent.
- <sup>2</sup> The place of study is Chur, but individual courses can take place at other locations.
- <sup>3</sup> The study programme is given in German/English for German classes and in English for international classes. Individual courses can take place in other languages.
- <sup>4</sup> A separate directive governs training in foreign languages.
- <sup>1</sup> The curriculum (structure of the study programme) is detailed in the attached document.
- <sup>2</sup> Students can view the specific study plan for the year in question.
- <sup>3</sup> The curriculum and study plan are subject to change.
- <sup>4</sup> The structure of the study programme comprises mandatory modules amounting to 136 ECTS points.
- <sup>5</sup> The structure of the study programme comprises mandatory elective modules amounting to 36 ECTS points.
- a) Major: A major must be selected: 12 ECTS points
The major will be stated on the diploma provided that the bachelor thesis is from the selected major.

- b) Mandatory elective modules: At least one module must be selected: 4 ECTS points
- c) Mandatory elective language English (various entry levels available): 8 ECTS points
- d) Mandatory elective language of a second language 12 ECTS points

<sup>6</sup> Free elective modules of up to 8 ECTS points can be selected. Students can actively identify and suggest free elective modules. They can be modules from other study programmes offered by the University of Applied Sciences, free elective modules from external training programmes, summer school courses, MOOCs, or similar, for example. Additional mandatory elective modules can be taken as free elective modules, at 4 ECTS points each, to reach the minimum number of 180 ECTS points for the bachelor's programme.

<sup>7</sup> The Director of Studies can mandate that mandatory elective modules only run if minimum participant numbers are met.

Art. 8
Exchange semesters

<sup>1</sup> An exchange semester, or an exchange year, in the instance of the double degree programme, can take place in the second year of the study programme. For this, the second year of the study programme is defined as the mobility window.

<sup>2</sup> An agreement will determine the modules that must be completed at the exchange university and subsequently recognised.

<sup>3</sup> If the agreed modules are not passed during the exchange semester, the Director of Studies will determine replacement modules.

IV. Examination and graduation process

Art. 9
Examination procedure

<sup>1</sup> The number, form and duration of course assessments are detailed in the module and course description in question.

<sup>2</sup> Students who are unable to participate in a course assessment due to justified, demonstrable extenuating circumstances (e.g. illness, accident, bereavement) will have the chance to sit a replacement examination.

<sup>3</sup> Re-examination as per the Framework Regulations are not possible for the bachelor thesis.

Art. 10
Course assessment

<sup>1</sup> Notice of deregistration from a module must be received in writing by the Director of Studies at least 10 days prior to the first course assessment for the module in question. It is not possible to deregister from the module if it is being repeated.

<sup>2</sup> To promote a student-centred approach to learning, grades for course assessments undertaken during the semester can be announced by the lecturers immediately after the assessments have been graded.

<sup>4</sup> The viewing of examination scripts will be organised centrally by the Director of Studies at the start of the subsequent semester.

<sup>5</sup> The objection date shall be classed as the date on which the examination scripts are viewed.

Art. 11
Failed modules

<sup>1</sup> Re-examination is not offered for the below modules:

a) Bachelor thesis

<sup>2</sup> The module description determines whether re-examination is offered for every other module. Participation in re-examinations is voluntary.

<sup>3</sup> The form and duration of a re-examination for a module may differ from the form and duration of the standard course assessment. Information about this will be announced by the Director of Studies in advance.

Art. 12
Bachelor Thesis

<sup>1</sup> The provisions for the bachelor thesis, laid down in a separate set of regulations for the study programme, apply.

V. Closing provisions

Art. 13
Entry into force and validity

<sup>1</sup> These Study and Examination Regulations enter into force on 1 September 2020. They replace the Study and Examination Regulations dated 27 June 2017.
